

Poland

April 26—Krakow. The city of Krakow presents the 15th annual ‘The Old and the Young’ International Jazz Festival presenting jazz stars, music teachers and jazz students from around the world. This event allows young jazz musicians to work with jazz masters to form new musical contacts and grow as musicians. Students and masters interact during long, nighttime jam sessions. For more information, email info@jazz.krakow.pl.